

DO AS I SAY

an interactive performance

DO AS I SAY is a physical dance performance that wants to make our social behavior visible on issues of bullying and authority. The piece is interactive and both the audience and dancers receive verbal instructions from a recorded voice, but who is actually in charge?

The purpose of the performance is to make the audience aware of how easily one can be influenced by a group or authority to a desired or perhaps less desirable behavior. DO AS I SAY is a performance that evokes emotions and creates new thoughts in both youth and adults.
