

KOLONISTERNA

An interactive performance

The common history of the Nordic countries goes back more than a thousand years. There have been periods of both friendship and war, but what colonial heritage and responsibilities do we northerners carry with us?

KOLONISTERNA is an interactive dance performance that directs a critical eye at our mutual history, which many prefer to forget, and at the colonial structures that prevail today. Embedded in a satirical atmosphere, the audience witnesses and participates in a study of power and the abuse of power. KOLONISTERNA is a cascade of choreography, voice and musical interplay in an interactive context where 5 dancers occupy and conquer the stage.
