BOBBI LO PRODUKTION

KOLO NISTERNA

KOLONISTERNA is an immersive dance performance that turns a critical eye towards the colonial structures that continue to shape our societies. Through sharp physicality, satire and a provocative atmosphere, five dancers move between control, submission, resistance and absurdity.

Choreography, voice and music collide in a constantly shifting landscape of power. The audience is drawn into a world where authority can be performed, challenged and overturned – and where the boundaries between observer and participant begin to blur.
