BOBBI LO PRODUKTION

SUB KULTUREN

SUBKULTUREN is a dance experience that unfolds in the heart of public space or on a theatre stage. It's about that feeling of belonging. When you stand in a group and suddenly feel: We are one. When the pulse between bodies begins to beat in sync. When you don't just watch – but want to take part.

We are inspired by subcultures – communities where young people create their own expressions through music, style, movement, and ideas. Often, it's a response to societal norms. A way of saying: "We do it our way." At the same time, it's about something deeply human – the need to belong, to be seen, and to feel at home.
